SMITH & JONES. Agency for the Prosecution of Claims of every description against the United States.

No. 291/2, Cherry Street, Nashville, Tennessee.

THE undersigned have been successfully engaged for several years, in the prosecution of claims against the United States, for Pensions, Bounty Land, Back Pay, Half Pay and Commutation, Transportation, and Extra Pay, and in fact, claims of every description, growing out of military service in any of the Wars of the United States. In the course of many years experience in the business, they have procured much valuable information, of material assistance in procuring the allowance of claims. They have in their possession much evidence of Revolutionary, and other service, which will be found of benefit to those having claims. By a recent enactment of Congress, all widows of Revolu-tionary Officers and soldiers, at any time married, are entitled to a Pension for life, all widows and minor orphans, of those who died in the service, or of wounds, or discase contracted while in the service in the various Indian wars since 1790, as well as the war of 1812 and the war with Mexico, are entitled to five years Half Pay and those who have already received it, to Half Pay for five years more. All com-munications prepaid, promptly attended to. No charge made, unless we succeed in procoring the allowance of the claim. feb26-BATW II.

is offered at extremely low prices for cash—his motto being is offered at extremely low prices for cash-his motto being short profits to make quick sales.

Ordered work, repairing and varnishing old fur-niture, done at the shortest notice, and upon very reasonable terms with despatch. I am also pre-pared to fill all orders for matrasses, the common shuck kept constantly on hand. Being the only one in the city having a right to manufacture O'Neal's Atmospheric Leaver Churn, it being unequalled by any, I would just say that a supply can always be found at my rooms on College street.

Stand for trial after the first two weeks.

Sd. No cause will be set for any particular day, unless for special reasons shown to, and approved by the Court.

4th. Judgments in unlitigated causes, and judgments by default, may be taken as heretofore.

5th. The litigated causes will be taken up in the order in which they stand on the Docket; when a cause is reaching the court of th ed, and one of the parties is not ready for trial, by consent of the parties the cause may go to the heel of that half of the Docket to which it belongs; otherwise it must be tried or continued when it is called.

6th. After going through the first half of the Docket, we will then turn back and take up the unfinished business in the order in which it stands on the Docket, at which time every cause will be tried or continued when reached.

every cause will be tried or continued when reached.

7th. If all the causes embraced in the first half of the Docket should not be disposed of within the first two weeks of the term, the remaining causes will be put at the heel of the entire Docket, to be disposed of after the causes embraced in the second half shall have been disposed of.

8th. After the first half of the Docket shall have been disposed of, or after the first two weeks of the term have elapsed, the second half of the Docket will be taken up and disposed of in the same order and subject to the same rules prescribed for the first half.

9th. No party will be permitted to continue a cause for

9th. No party will be permitted to continue a cause for the abscence of witness or witnesses until he has first called out and taken a forfeiture against all the absent witnesses who have been subportated, unless he is prepared to show by proof that the witnesses is sick or has some other reasonable excuse for his non-attendance. 10th. It shall be the duty of the Clerk, within forty days after the adjournment of this and each term of this Court, to divide the Docket as stated, and publish in one or two newspapers of general circulation, the causes set for trial during the first two weeks and the second week of the term, so that the parties in such causes may have notice when their attendence will be required.

11th. It shall furthermore be the duty of the Clerk, when issuing subposnas for the witnesses in the second half of the causes, to summon them to attend on the fourth Monday of
